MAP Dealer Agreement

The Hayman Safe Company Minimum Advertised Price (MAP) policy is an agreement between all Authorized Dealers and Hayman Safe Company to maintain the value and worth of our brands. Both Hayman Safe Company and its dealers work hard to develop, market and distribute products that represent excellent value for its customers. A meaningful MAP policy also helps provide well deserved margins for dealers of Hayman Safe Company products.

How to Conform to MAP

MAP standards will be applied for purposes of all offers for sale of Hayman Safe Company products.

For the purposes of this agreement, advertisement shall refer to any presentation, offer, or solicitation for the purposes of sale of Hayman Safe Company product. This shall include- but not be limited to- price lists, newspaper and magazine ads, catalogs, flyers, direct mail, signs, billboards and banners. This also includes any and all forms of electronic advertising: radio, TV, facsimiles, websites, and e-mail newsletters.

~ No mention of a lower price or discount is allowed. Statements such as %Call for price+or %Call for lower price+are not allowed.

~ No %Add to Cart+for lower price permitted.

~ No coupons for Hayman Safe Company products are allowed in any newsletters or publications (electronic communications included) unless authorized by Hayman Safe Company.

~ Dealers must receive written pre-approval before selling Hayman Safe Company products on any 3rd party websites.

~ If selling on any auction site such as EBAY®, the price listed as %Buy Now+must be at or above MAP.

%No Reserve Price+or %Best Offer+is not permitted.

~ Dealers who do not follow our MAP will be contacted so that the situation can be corrected. If the pricing is not corrected in a timely manner the dealer will lose product availability.
